A MESSAGE TO THE GRADUATES

Dear Seniors:

No longer do we think of your education merely as the sum of the courses entered on your record card. What makes your schooling unique and significant is the era in which it has taken place. Other classes seem to have attended school in periods of calm. It has been your lot to attend school in an era of turmoil, strife, and crisis, both international and domestic. Studies and polls clearly confirm that students today are involved in the world about them as much as the adults. In some way, this is a new phenomenon for American youth. It is obvious that these conditions have not only influenced your formal studies but have also affected your outlook and future plans.

The success of your high school education must, therefore, be measured by your growth as human beings, and by your preparedness to pursue your goals in the world of reality.

It is to these ends that your high school experiences were directed. During your stay at FOREST HILLS, you shaped many of your values of life. I have observed with approval the way in which you have increasingly used the processes of reason in reaching your judgments. You have proven yourselves to be self-reliant in your individual and group activities. Your daily life in school and in the community evidenced your regard for others. Your indignation against injustice has characterized your thinking. You are living the democratic way of life.

It is to your credit that you have achieved a mature perspective. Your schooling has consisted of a wide diversity of activities. Your studies ranged from the abstract mathematics to the concrete studies of the practical arts; from the humanities to the sciences, and from courses for leisure time living to courses for earning a livelihood. You have prepared yourselves for full and meaningful lives

The transition you are about to make into the world of higher education or of work is paralleled by the transition a world in crisis may be taking. You have the task and opportunity to shape both. Your faith in yourselves and in the future, I know, is well founded.

Sincerely,

PAUL BALSER

Soccer

Competing in the Class A Division of Queens, The Forest Hills Soccer Team compiled a 5-7 record this season.

After a fine start in which they won five of their first seven games, the Booters slumped badly, losing their last five games in a row. Injuries on the offensive line, causing a lack of potentcy in the attack, were the basic reason for these losses. The squad recorded only six goals during its losing streak.

However, Coach Varone, in his second year with the team, stated that he was not at all disappointed with FH's performance, despite the fact that the Booters finished the '66 campaign with a 6-5-1 record. "This year we played in the best league in Queens, which is tougher, much tougher than the other divisions."

The international composition of the team was one of the main reasons for the squad's strong showing at the season's start. The FH squad, except for one native, is composed entirely of foreign students.

Whatever success FH enjoyed this season was due to the elimination of several weak spots during fall practice, and the skill of goalie Meir Benzur. Meir was noted throughout the league for his catlike movements and agility. The forward line was strengthened with the addition of Hari O. Hanesian. Hanesian's main function was to back up Obren Petricic. Petricic has been cited as one of the stars of the team.

Other members of the team include forwards—Levon Antreasyan, Rafy Blumenstock, Henry Faltlowiez, George Halimi, Jack Israeli, Luis Nichols, Igal Schwartzman, Anthony Zaccaria, and Janover Moshe; Fullbacks—George Aghazadian, Alex Austin, Sam Avneri, Moshe Gancz, Steven Lieb (the only American); halfbacks—William Keshishian, and George Ohebshalom.

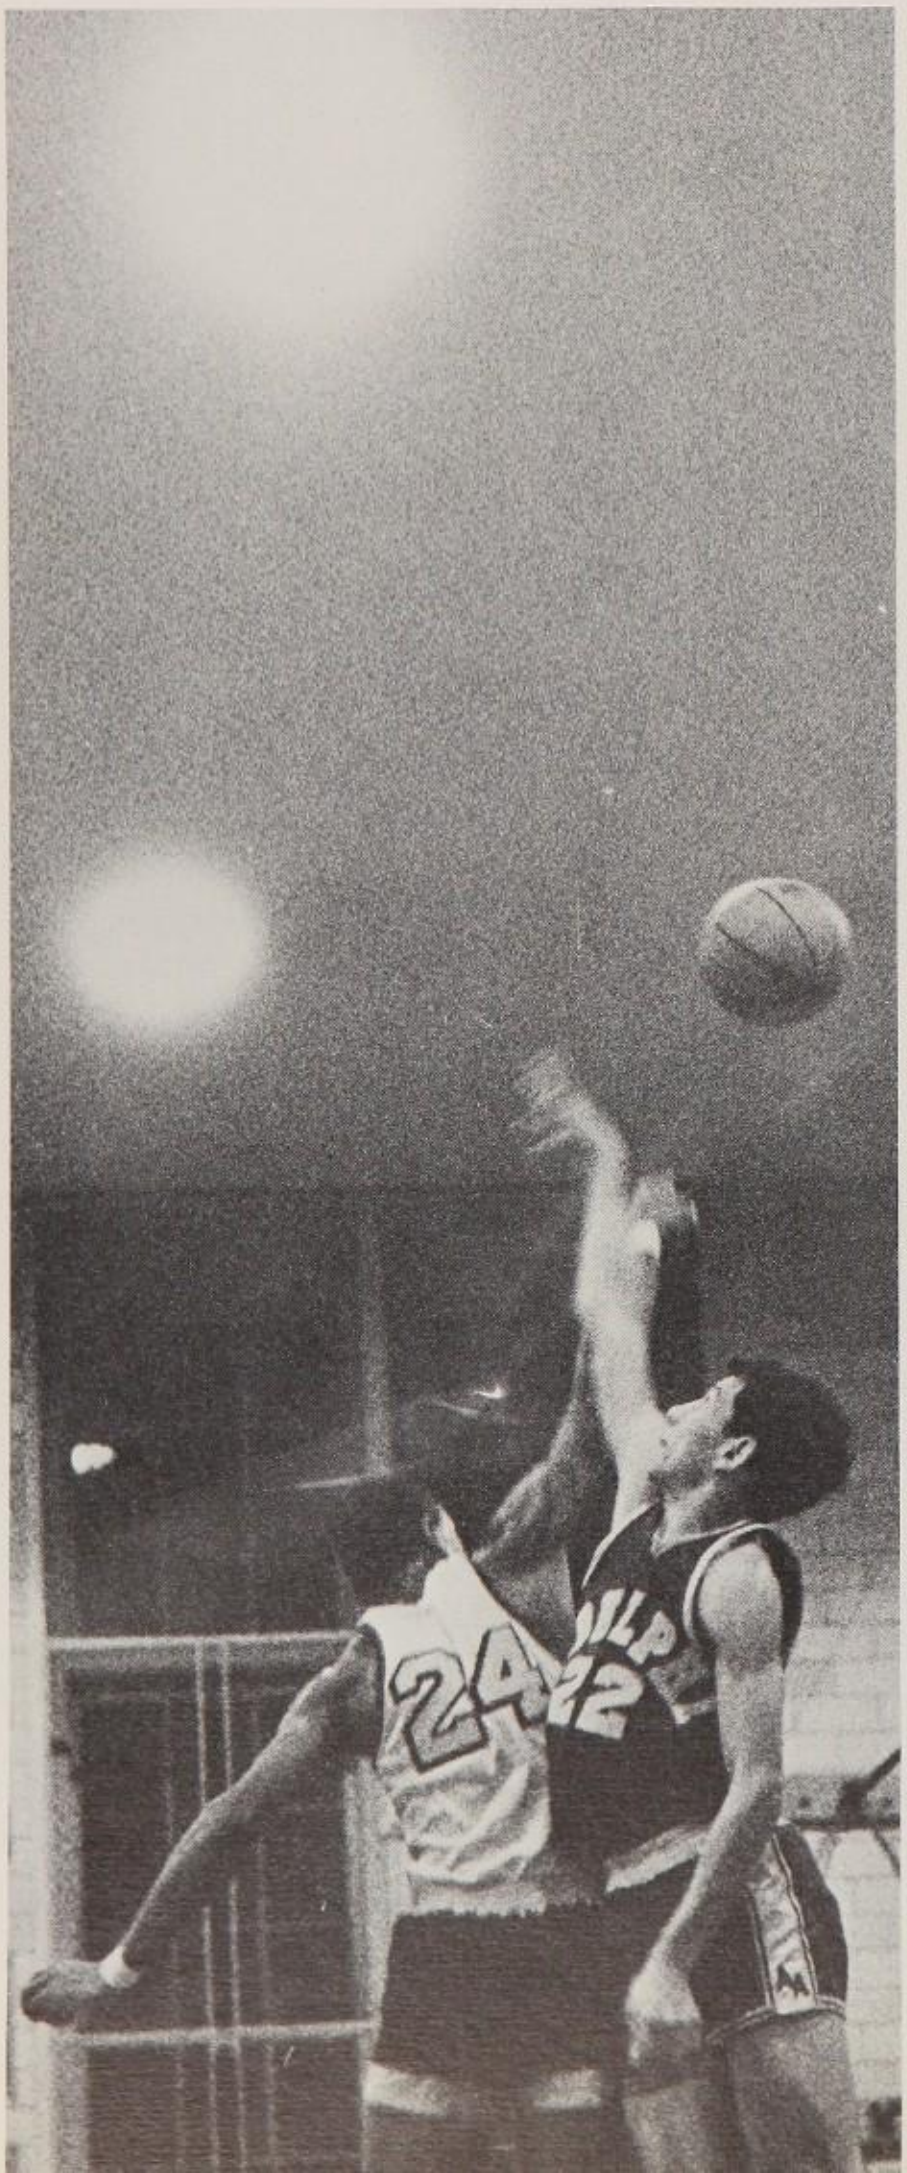
Basketball



The Forest Hills Basketball Team certainly did not establish a new precedent in the campaign of 1967-68. Under the leadership of Coach Irwin Isser, completing his second year with the squad, FH placed last in Northern Queens. After achieving success in their home-opener by defeating Bowne, the Rangers dropped their last 14 games in succession to compile a dismal 1-15 record.

Nevertheless, there were some bright spots in an otherwise bleak season. After several early losses, Coach Isser decided to devote 1968 to rebuilding and several bright young stars emerged. Ira Rubenstein, a junior, was the team's leading scorer with a 14.5 average. Sophomore Bill Banton also displayed fine form and recorded a 12.8 average per game. Other junior standouts were Ira Klein and Jeff Diamond.

Nor was the squad devoid of competent senior performers. Wilbur Jackson, an aggressive guard, sparked the team through a good part of the year before an injury sidelined him for the final games. Captain David Osieki provided the team with capable leadership in times of need. Other players who closed out their high school playing careers in 1968 were Ronnie Holle and Russell Dean.

Bowling Team

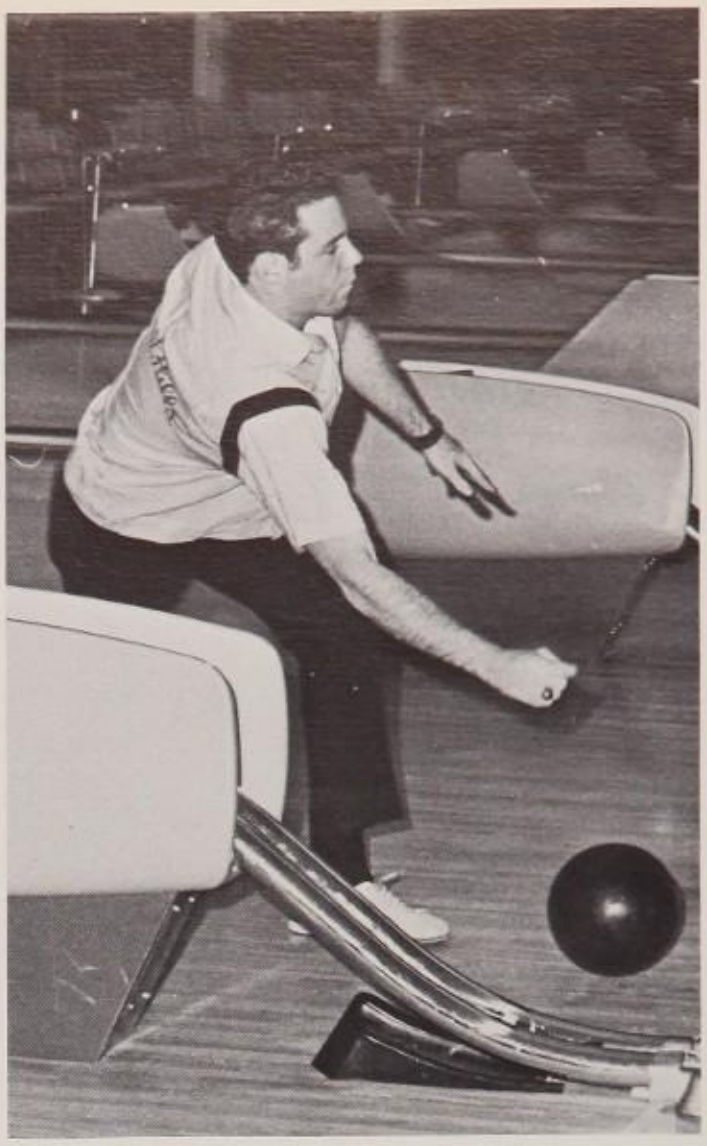
For the Forest Hills Bowling Team, 1967 was a season of disappointment and rebuilding. The Keglers failed to defend their league title successfully as they finished the campaign on the short end of a 3 and 7 record.

In general, it was felt that the key to the squad's sudden demise was the loss of several notable seniors from the '66 divisional champs due to graduation. They just couldn't be replaced as Coach Mare cited that "he didn't get as much support from the newcomers as was previously expected."

The season, however, was not completely devoid of high spots as Coach Mare succeeded in developing a squad which gained much experience in 1967 and which should be of championship caliber next fall. Also, the Keglers defeated Cardoza High School twice and split their season's series with Bayside.

1967 also marked the first time in recent years that a junior was named as team captain. The honor was given to Frank Friedman and he handled the responsibility quite competently. Throughout the campaign, Frank performed notably and compiled an average which exceeded 160. In addition, Frank, along with Bruce Klein and senior Marc Lercher, participated in the Individual Borough Championships in December. Friedman placed ninth in the borough while Lercher was forced to drop out of the competition due to illness.

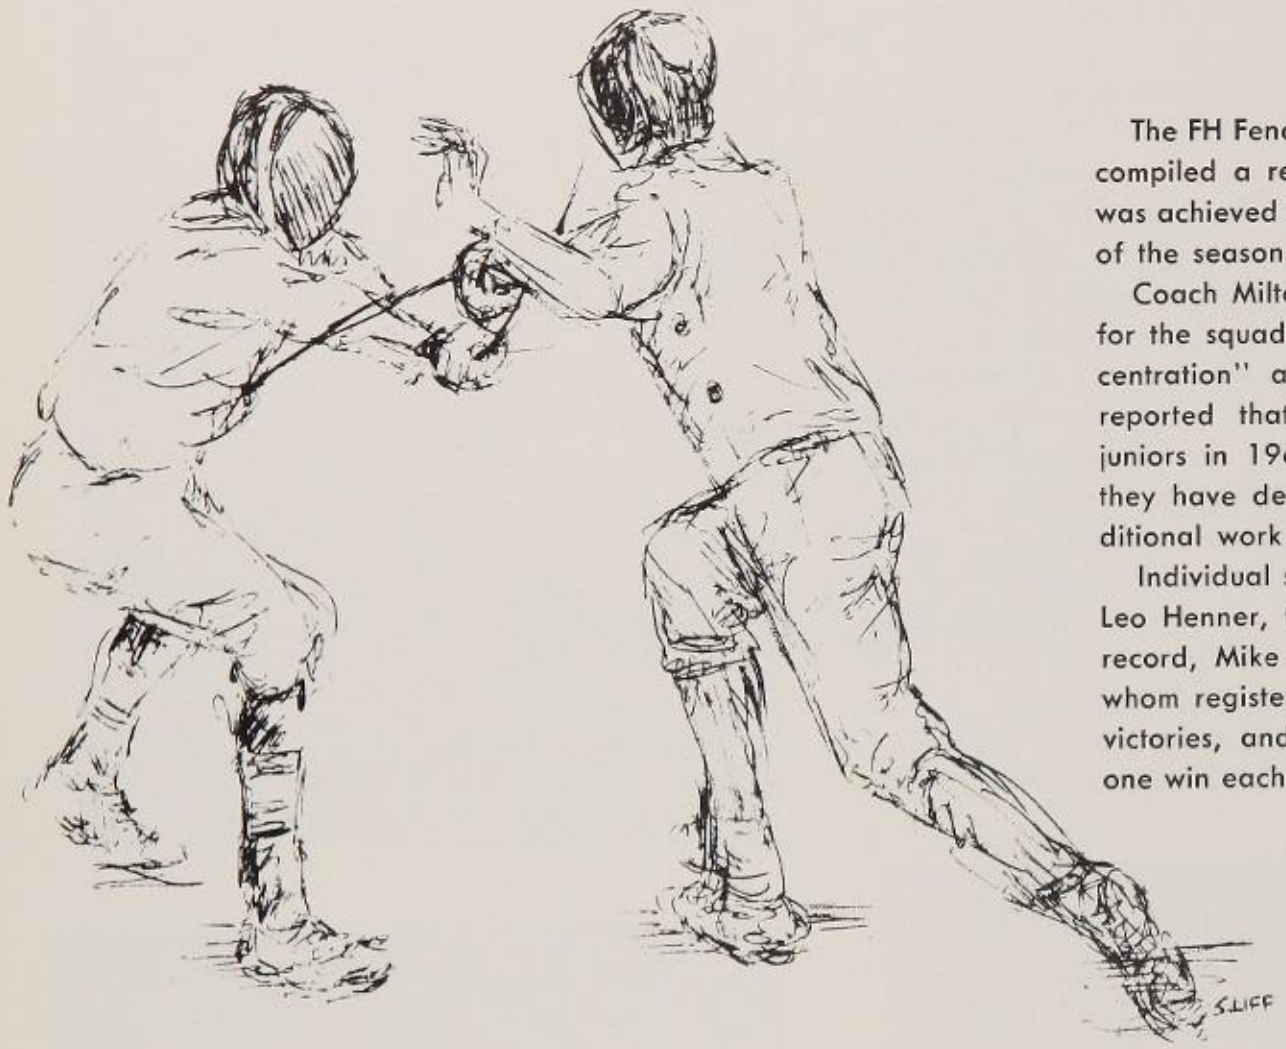
It should be noted that Bruce Klein, a junior, bowled the highest game of the year for FH as he rolled a 257 in a losing effort against Bayside. In another contest against Bowne, he recorded a 228. Captain Frank Friedman was the only other kegler to break 200, hitting the mark in the final match of the season against Francis Lewis.



A little luck, Oh team!

Hands Up!

Fencing



The FH Fencing Team, led by captain Leo Henner, compiled a record of 1-5-2. The Foiler's only win was achieved against Brandeis H.S. in the final meet of the season.

Coach Milton Sirota stated that the main reason for the squad's poor showing was "a lack of concentration" and "not enough effort." Mr. Sirota reported that although the performance of the juniors in 1967 was not particularly encouraging, they have developed good attitudes and with additional work should improve.

Individual standouts during the past season were Leo Henner, the team's leading scorer with a 9-7 record, Mike Lebowitz and Abe London, both of whom registered four wins, Mario Kohn with three victories, and Tom Gould and Peter Katona with one win each.

"Sure is a heavy turnout today, isn't it."

Track and Cross Country

For the FH cross-country, indoor, and outdoor track teams, 1968 was a year in which considerable success was achieved. It was generally felt that had the breaks fallen in the right places, the Harriers could have attained recognition on a higher level.

The FH cross-country team recorded a 2-3 mark in five dual meets. They were led by Dave Dibo and Danny Schwartz. Unfortunately, co-captains Al Chernin and Dave Powell were constantly hampered by injuries. Coach Sirota cited the cross-country season as a "period of conditioning."

As for the indoor track campaign, FH showed strength on two of its relay teams, the novice 880 and the open mile relay. The mile relay team placed first or second in practically every heat of the year. The team consists of Lonnie Lepore, Irving Kass, Al Chernin, and Obren Petricic.

Ken Itzkowitz, Jay Wollenberg, Curtis Jones, and Dave Bishop formed the 880 Novice relay squad. They ran well throughout the season and barely missed qualifying for the time finals on various occasions.

Individually, Al Chernin, Dave Powell, and Mike Callendar sparked the team.

In the outdoor season, with the addition of Wilbur Jackson, Bill Banton, and others, FH performed creditably.

Roll Call.

Hey, get off my foot!

On dry ground at last.

Member of the inner circle.

Getting high.

Under the leadership of newly appointed coach Mr. Michael Krutoy, the 1968 Gymnastic team finished the campaign with a .500 record.

Undoubtedly the outstanding performance given by Larry Lewis had quite a bit to do with whatever success the squad enjoyed. Larry, only a junior, won the Queens division championship in rope-climbing. During the course of the season, Lewis registered times of 4.5 seconds and under.

But Larry Lewis was not the only "shining light" of the team. Other FH athletes deserving mention are Bruce Rind, Roger Cassuto, captain Sheldon Lewis, Steve Levin, and Ricardo Rosenthal. Rind gave competent exhibitions in both the tumbling, and free exercise events. Roger Cassuto achieved a first place standing on the long horse vault in a meet against Francis Lewis. Sheldon Lewis more often than not placed second behind his brother in the rope climb in practically every meet. Steve Levin and Ricardo Rosenthal excelled on the parallel bars and the high bar respectively.

PAUL BALSER, Principal

Lost and found

Beauty Corner

A large part of the Senior year at high school is spent worrying about college. To help FH students get a better idea of the life and environment at various colleges around the country, the FH guidance department organizes a special College Night every two years.

This year, representatives of seventy colleges and universities came to Forest Hills High, to talk to all interested students and parents about the opportunities and courses of study offered by their respective schools. The speakers were frank and informative, and while all Hillites may not have been encouraged by what they heard, most of them did emerge with a far clearer picture of college requirements and college life.

"Is this a way to run an airline?"

Rather bookish for Cornell.

NOVEMBER

2—FH students stunned by news that Sing has passed away. Thousands go into mourning.

9—This week I got a white card, a yellow card, a blue card, and a report card. The first three were nice . . . but the last one I could have done without.

10—Hundreds of Hillites attend first G.O. dance where Sing '68 is brought back to life.

16—Candidates for Senior Class offices race past bewildered marshals, breathlessly enter senior section classes, and are courteously listened to in between the teacher's shouting, students' yawning, and Frank Politzer's numerous announcements over the PA.

17—They did it! They did it! The FH Rangers finally won a basketball game!

18—Scholarship-minded Seniors suffer with juniors through two-hour PSAT.

21—Do New York State teachers know their names, marital status, and sex? State Education Department finds out all on Teacher Information Day.

22—Seniors elect their class officers and wish them lots of luck!

23—Stuffed myself with pumpkin pie, cranberry sauce, and ten delicious pieces of roast turkey. Boy, what a stomach ache!

28—Midterm time is here again, time to sit down and cram into my limited capacity brain everything I should have been learning for the past eight weeks.

"You mean this isn't Brooklyn Tech?"

"Down the hall to your left."

"First period is not too early for History."

"But you've got to believe me—I am a teacher."

"A musician he's not."

Open School Week

Many parents interrupted their daily routines to pay a visit to their children's teachers. During the short period of time that the parents and teachers talked with one another, they found that they had a lot in common—they both have a hard time putting up with the youth of today.

"—and put that in your pipe and smoke it."

"Can I help it if he can't add."

"You say he is like an Excedrin headache."

"You think you've got problems."

"—now let's put that into plain English."

THE MIRACLE WORKER

Terry Mazer's and Marina Stamatiou's Miracle Worker was indeed a magnificent performance. Marina, as deaf, dumb and blind Helen Keller, and Terry, as her teacher, Annie Sullivan, performed three scenes from William Gibson's play. The two Forest Hills seniors developed and played their difficult roles beautifully. The directing and staging of the production was also due to the effort and hard work of Terry and Marina. It was a rare experience to see two actresses work so well together and also present a fine quality of professionalism.

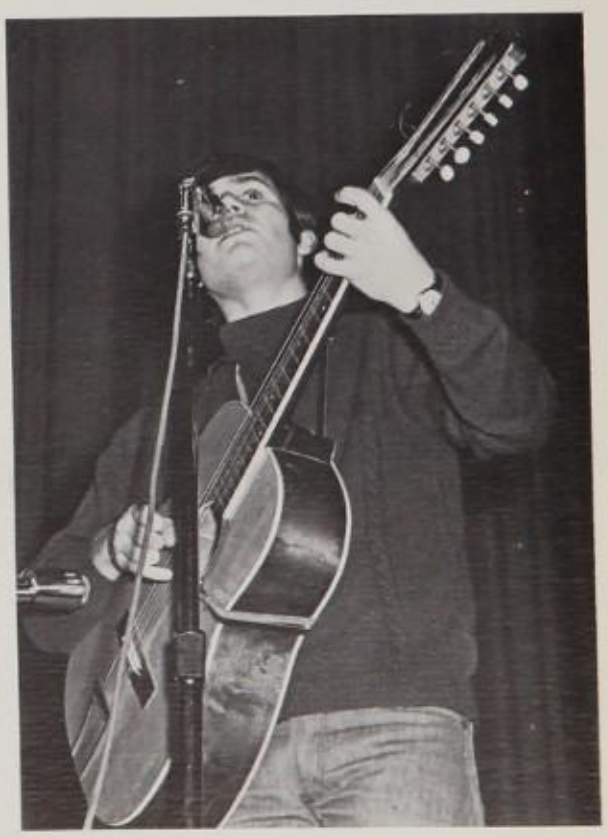
Terry Mazer and Marina Stamatiou in scenes from the play.

TALENT SHOW

The Forest Hills Review of 1967 was our Talent Show in disguise. It provided an evening of madcap hilarity by dozens of talented Forest Hills students. The show consisted of a variety of entertainment, including solo singing of folk and show music, and dancing to African music. The slightly corny, but often humorous jesting of the emcee, Scott Gordon, added additional spice.

Harmony

Bring on the dancing girls



Guitars are cheaper than ever

An array of Alumni attracted attention . . . as always, and Lively laughter lingered long. This
Union of university undergraduates unfolded
Matters moderately mystifying, magical . . . and misleading.
Numerous nobodies were noticed, and nostalgia was Instantly instilled with intangible intensity in all minds. And so they . . .

Danced, our dear
Alumni,
Never, never Ceasing to
Enjoy everlasting, existing memories of Forest Hills High.

"It's so wonderful to see you."

When grads get together, there's always a full house.

Alumni Dance

Fascination

"It's too sweet, honey."

"Let's have a sit in."

"I think the food has improved."

DECEMBER

2—For a change, Seniors have to get up bright and early—this time to take the SAT's. I think I'd rather go to school.
5—FH cheerleaders really have something to cheer about, as FH Rangers beat Bowne.
7—Seniors get some bad news—RSE results.
15—Play Pro puts on a miraculous production of the "Miracle Worker" for FH English students.
21—Familiar faces reappear at FH as members of the class of '67 return to tell this year's Seniors all about college life.
22—Hillites are filled with the Christmas spirit—even if there isn't any snow on the ground.

JANUARY

1—Happy 1968. Another blissful year has "gone with the wind."
2—Nothing can prevent the inevitable. And so its back to school for a final six months of drudgery.
14—Second Super Bowl game. It doesn't take much brains to figure out who won.
24—Intersession—another week's reprieve, and boy do we need it; Christmas vacation was really exhausting.
25—Seniors bid farewell to history, as they take the American History Regents.
30—Sing Dress Rehersal—At last everyone can see just how great the Seniors really are.
31—Good luck to the 156 January graduates.
Good luck to all the other Seniors who have to go home and show their report cards to their parents.

"Here I am—the R-Royal fool!"

"Do you knights know what happens to strangers who intrude here?"

Senior Sing 1968

Why are these knights different from all other knights?

"Announcing Lord Barfington,
his wife Lady Clairol, and their daughter,
Lady Agnes."

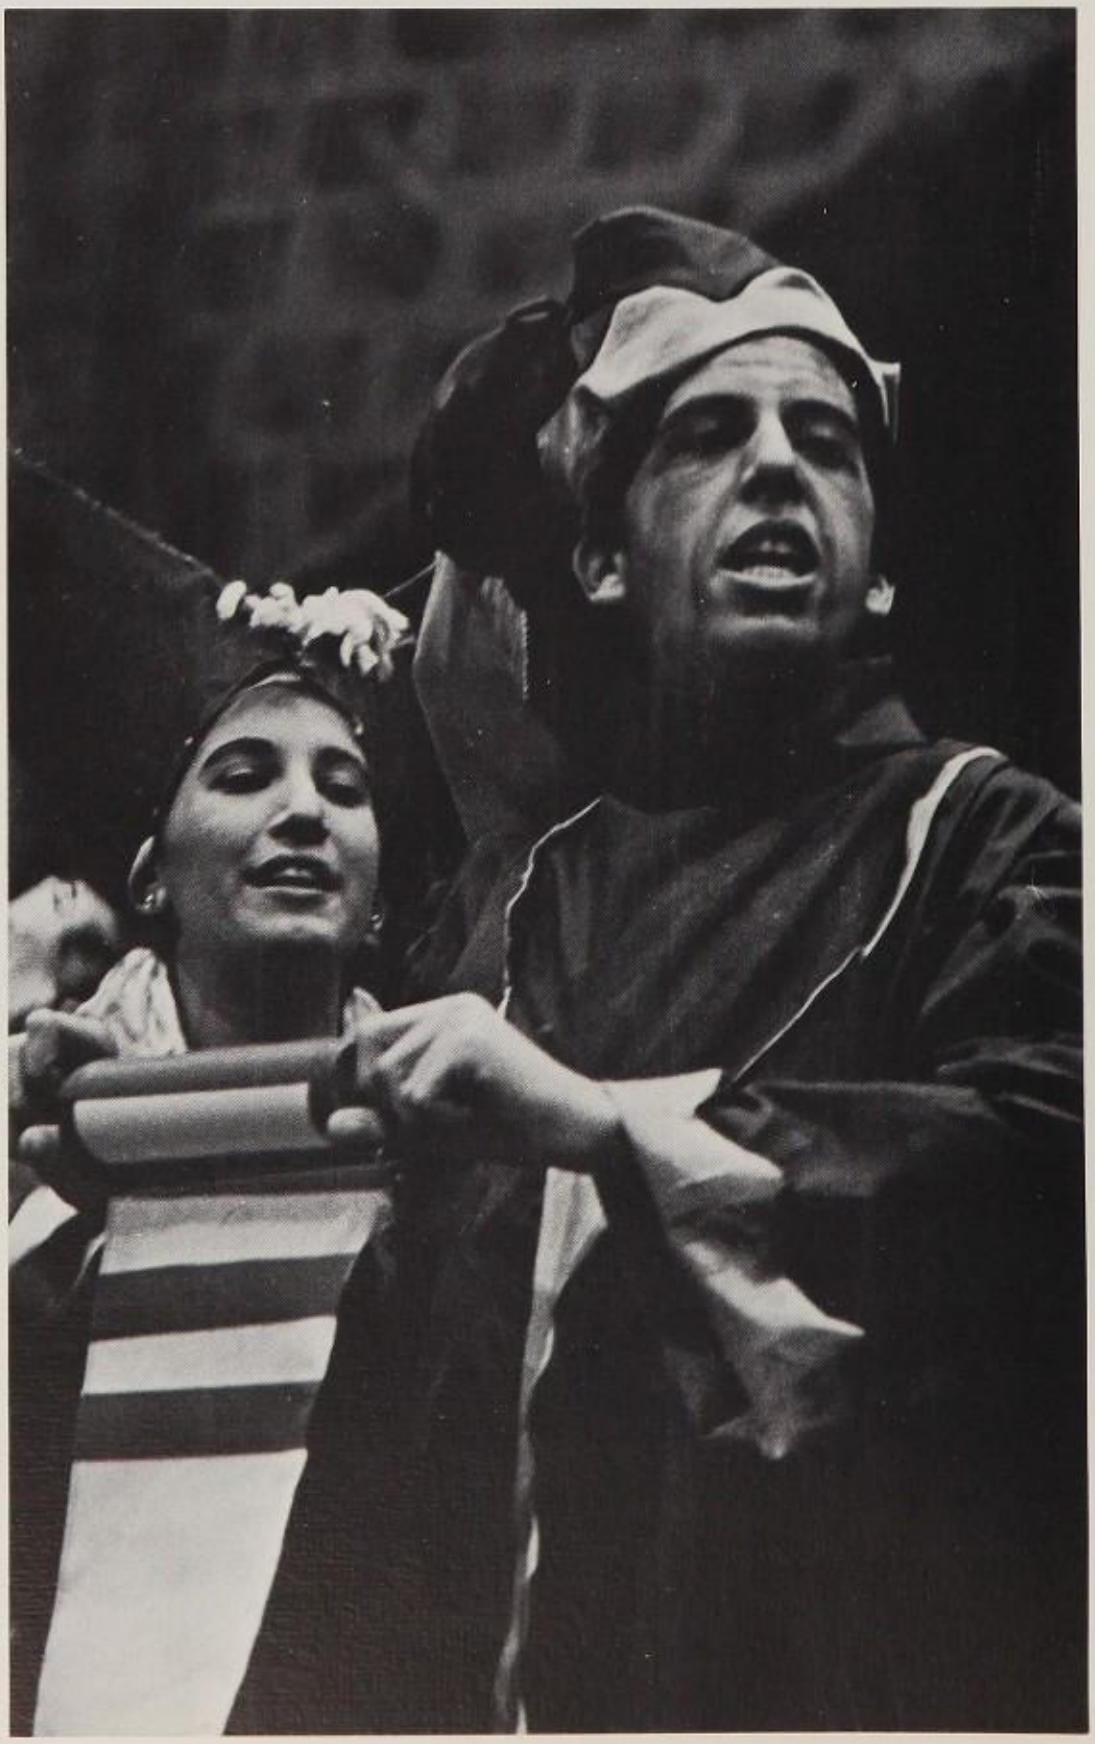
"Ye—e-es Snookums."

"What if you and I took it?"

"We'll show em how."

"Pick a winner Clairol."

Maidens are schooled in the art of grace.



Oh what a grand delight.

M-m-m-m.

"Men of blood and f-i-r-e."

"R-r-rather let these good people tell it to you."

Seniors are gonna win tonight!

FEBRUARY

1—Opening night of Sing '68. Seniors put on quite a show.

2—Last term at FH gets under way. Go to new classes. Happy to see familiar faces of students. Not so happy to see familiar faces of teachers.
A truly wonderful "knight" to remember, as Seniors win Sing '68.

8—New York City is covered with garbage. New show makes Broadway debut. Its title—"Oh dad, poor dad, he's up to his neck in garbage and he's feeling so sad."

10—FH loses close contest on "It's Academic." It's so reassuring to know that even geniuses can make mistakes.

15—In a battle of the generations, the FH faculty basketball team wins a decisive victory over a team of zealous FH seniors.

18—Garbage strike ends. For city, the crisis is over, but for Governor Rockefeller it's only beginning.

27—Brotherhood Assembly. Wonderful sound of music.

27. 28, 29—Its contribution time again. This month's worthy cause—the Senior class treasury.

29—Leap year is here. Girls, go out and grab yourselves a fellow. You won't have another chance until 1972.

MARCH

1—March really comes in like a lion, as it makes its entry in a whirl of snow.

4—FH first school in country to have three Westinghouse finalists. If FH is such a good school, why couldn't it make something out of me?

12—McCarthy makes surprisingly strong showing in New Hampshire Presidential Primary.

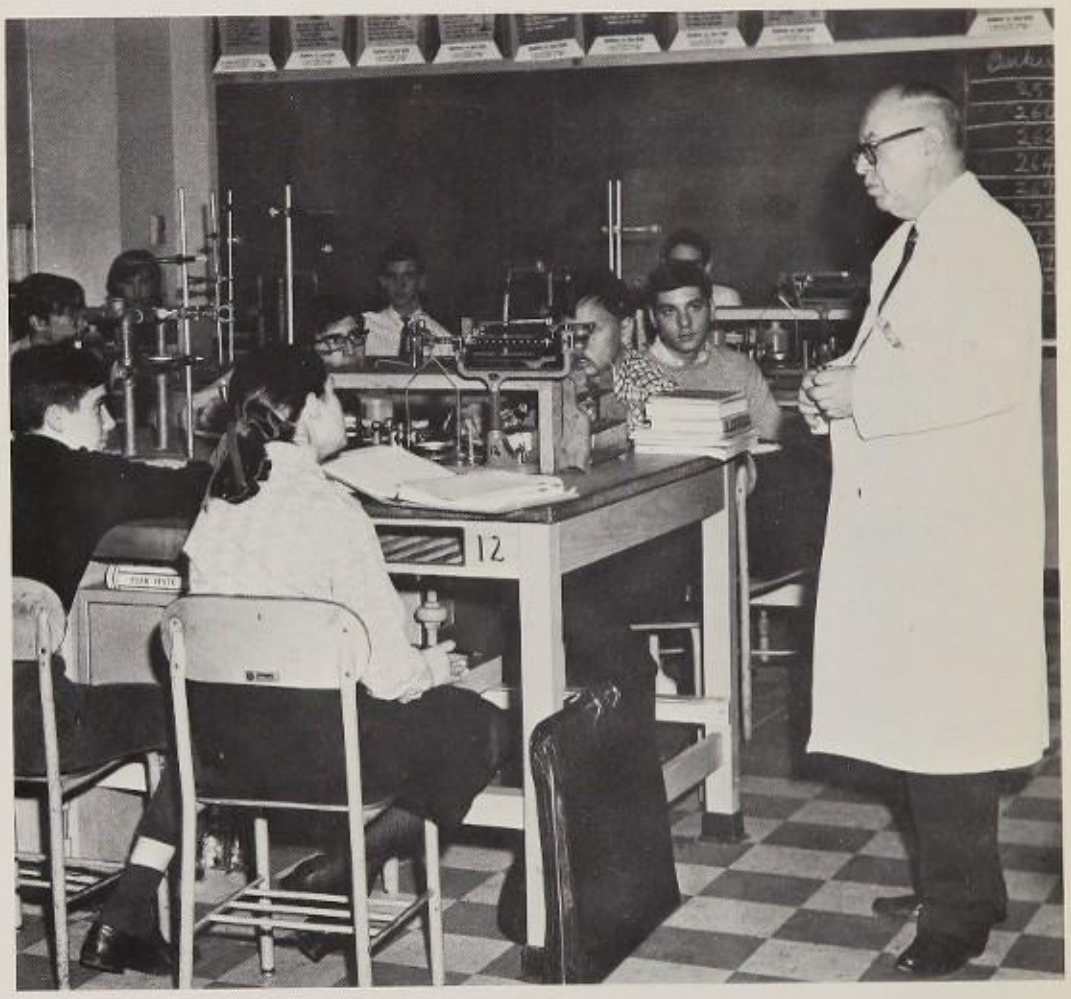
13—RFK no longer able to conceal his presidential ambitions, so he, too, enters the race for the Democratic Party's presidential nomination.

20—Some Seniors feel great honor as they are elected Senior celebrities. Most Seniors feel only great envy.

25—Prom thermometer goes up in main lobby to measure steadily rising prom fever.

26, 27, 28—Just saw terrific Play Pro Assembly, but still don't know what "the Crucible" is.
Seniors stand in line for cap and gown measurements, and hope that, in June, it will be proven that these measurements have not been taken in vain.

31—LBJ shocks country with announcement that he will not seek reelection.



"Today we are going to learn my famous recipe for chicken soup."

"Quick, slip it in while she's not looking!"

"I'll put it in while they aren't looking."

APRIL

1—It's April Fools Day. FH students should be very honored that a special day has been set aside just for them.

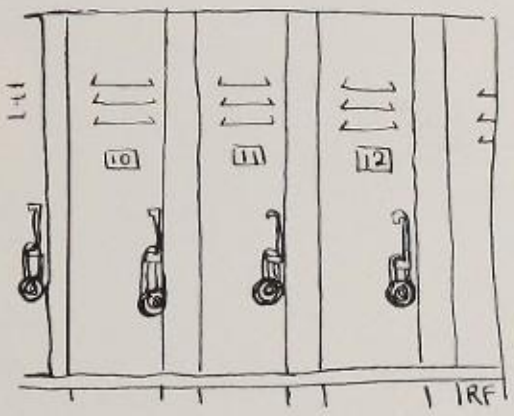
4—The nation is deeply shocked by news of the assassination of one of the truly great men of our time, Dr. Martin Luther King.

9—New York City schools are closed today, but for once no one is happy. For, today is the funeral of Dr. Martin Luther King.

12—Seniors breath a sigh of relief as the Easter vacation is here at last. Just imagine, there will be no need to cut classes for an entire week.

15—For most Seniors this is just another fun day of Easter vacation, but for those Seniors who applied to Ivy League schools it is a day of nervous anticipation and prayer.

26—To school or not to school?—that is the question. For, the first international student strike will be held today. Student attention turns away from the burning of draft cards and toward the burning of witches, as Play Pro presents Arthur Miller's "The Crucible."



"So what do we do when we're over the border?"

MAY

1—End of second third, only one more to go—hope I have the strength to last; with this much aggravation behind me it would be silly to quit.

14—Last assembly at FH (I hope). Still don't know school alma mater.

29—El Patio Beach Club brightens up for FH Senior Prom. Took me two hours to find the place, but once there —wor, what a marvelous night.

30—Memorial Day. Gee, I haven't been to school yet this week.

JUNE

5—Finals, not again. Can't be tested on too much; after all I haven't learned too much this term.

17—Our last Regents—we hope!

24—Graduation Rehearsals. So tired—tired of waiting for you.

26—Hundreds of tearful mamas and papas proudly watch as FH Seniors star in the latest version of "The Graduate." From every member of the Forester Staff to every graduate—the very best of luck.

"Such art! It gets me right here."
